

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MINNESOTA

---

United States of America,

Case No. 22-cr-76 (KMM/TNL)

Plaintiff,

v.

ORDER

Shevirio Kavirion Childs-Young (1),
William Charles Saffold (2),
Eric Harrell Knight (3), and Javeyon Demario Tate (4),

Defendants.

This matter is before the Court on Defendants' Joint Motion for Extension of Time to File Pretrial Motions (ECF No. 61) and Defendants' Joint Motion to Exclude Time Under the Speedy Trial Act (ECF No. 62). Defendants also each filed a Statement of Facts in Support of Exclusion of Time Under Speedy Trial Act. (ECF Nos. 63-66.) Defendants request a six-week extension of the pretrial motions filing date, the motions hearing date, the trial date, and all corresponding dates and deadlines. (ECF No. 61 at 1.)

The Court designated this case as complex on June 23, 2022, given the large amount of discovery and the number of alleged criminal incidents. (ECF No. 32 at 2.) Defendants state that they "have received voluminous discovery, including numerous search warrants, videos that must be reviewed upon request, and thousands of pages of documents." (ECF No. 61 at 1.) Counsel for Defendants contend that they need additional time to review the discovery, communicate with their clients, and draft motions to be filed. (Id.) Accordingly, Defendants move to extend the pretrial motions filing date by six weeks, to October 3,

2022, and to continue the motions hearing date, the trial date, and all corresponding dates and deadlines by six weeks. (Id.) The Government does not oppose the motion. (Id.)

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h), this Court finds that the ends of justice served by granting a continuance outweigh the best interests of the public and Defendants in a speedy trial and such continuance is necessary to provide Defendants and their attorneys reasonable time necessary for effective preparation and to make efficient use of the parties' resources.

Additionally, beginning on March 13, 2020, and continuing thereafter, the Honorable John R. Tunheim, then-Chief District Judge for the United States District Court for the District of Minnesota, has issued a series of General Orders in connection with the COVID-19 pandemic, addressing, among other things, criminal proceedings and trials.<sup>1</sup> On June 1, 2022, Judge Tunheim entered General Order No. 36, which allows limited in-person proceedings for defendants who decline to consent to conducting the proceeding using videoconferencing, or telephone conferencing if videoconferencing is not reasonably available. See generally In re: Updated Guidance to Court Operations Under the Exigent Circumstances Created by COVID-19, Gen. Order No. 36 (D. Minn. June 1, 2022). General Order No. 36 states that because only limited in-person proceedings may be held each day, criminal proceedings may be continued until the date that the criminal proceeding takes place.

<sup>1</sup> All General Orders related to the COVID-19 pandemic may be found on the Court's website at <https://www.mnd.uscourts.gov/coronavirus-covid-19-guidance>.

General Order No. 36 continues to encourage the use of videoconferencing in criminal proceedings and states that, with the defendant's consent, criminal proceedings will be conducted by videoconferencing, or telephone conferencing if videoconferencing is not reasonably available. General Order No. 36 further provides that the presiding judge will enter orders in individual cases to extend deadlines and exclude time under the Speedy Trial Act to address delays attributable to COVID-19. Accordingly, should Defendants file pretrial motions, counsel shall also file a letter indicating whether Defendants consent to a motions hearing by videoconference. (See also ECF Nos. 30, 56.)
